

On the Subject of Words

We do a little unscrambling.

- The module will display 24 letters that you can press.
- Pressing letters will add to your current submission, pressing a previously pressed button will submit your current word and reset the board.
- A word's length determines how many points it earns, with longer words being worth more. Score thirty points to disarm the module.
- Submissions that aren't words will decrease your score by a point (It's pretty hard to do this though, as the wordlist is pretty bonkers.)
